

WILSON ELECTED; ROOSEVELT BEATS TAFT

LATE RETURNS SHOW DEMOCRATS TO HAVE 393 ELECTORAL VOTES

Only Eight Electors I'edged to Vote for Taft; Roosevelt Has 74, While 54 Are in Doubt

NEW YORK, Nov. 5. With the election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency and Thomas R. Marshall to the vice presidency, assured by late returns tonight, the reports show that the electoral vote of the Democratic candidates will be 393.

It was certain that Illinois would give an overwhelming majority to Roosevelt, while the race in Pennsylvania was so close as to bring all three candidates within range of success.

Early returns gave Wilson and Marshall the "solid south" and the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York, West Virginia, Indiana, and Missouri.

Montana, New Jersey and New Mexico were added to those that seemed certain for the Democratic candidates, while scattering returns from San Francisco and Los Angeles made it probable that California might join the Wilson-Marshall column.

Rhode Island also became a doubtful state on the returns near midnight.

The vote in Utah as reflected in the dispatches up to midnight, gave indications that the state might be carried by Taft. The vote in Pennsylvania more than a thousand precincts embracing over 135,000 votes, giving each of the three leading presidential candidates more than 60,000 votes.

"SOLID SOUTH" GOES TO WILSON EARLY

The early returns gave to Governor Wilson the "solid south" embracing all Democratic states south of the Potomac; and Connecticut, Delaware, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York and apparently West Virginia, Indiana and Missouri.

Roosevelt's victory in Illinois, conceded early in the evening by the Democratic leaders, promised at 10 o'clock to carry with it a plurality greater than 100,000. New Hampshire and Vermont had apparently given a majority to Taft on the basis of fairly complete returns received at that time.

MAKES GAINS IN SENATE

A gain of two Democratic seats in the United States senate was assured by the returns from Delaware and New Jersey. The legislature of Rhode Island probably will be Democratic, insuring a Democratic successor to Wetmore, Republican, retired.

Late returns from Wyoming indicated that Warren, Republican, would be elected.

Democratic managers in Colorado believe that the two Democratic candidates for the United States senate will be carried in on Wilson's plurality. In Illinois, which will elect two United States senators, late returns indicated that the Progressives and Socialists would hold the balance of power on joint ballot.

Indications contained in early and incomplete returns were that the Democrats would make gains in the United States senate, but whether these gains would be sufficient to change the political complexion of the senate was undetermined.

UNCERTAINTY ON ELECTION GOVERNORS

In only seven of the 29 states which elected governors, were the returns up to 11:30 p. m. complete enough to indicate the probable result, and in only one of these, Illinois, was there an apparent swing from the Republican to the Democratic column.

ed in New York. In Massachusetts and New York, in Massachusetts and in Connecticut, the indications were that the incumbents, Eugene N. Ross, Democrat, and Simon E. Baldwin, Democrat, were re-elected. In Illinois,

COUNTY RESULT IN DOUBT; PROGRESSIVES RUN STRONG

Neck and Neck With Democrats; Republicans Poor Third; No Complete Returns

With no complete returns in from a single precinct up to the hour of going to press, and reports received on straight and scratched ballots from only 32 of the 62 precincts, the result of the election in El Paso county is in doubt. It is estimated that about 16,500 votes were cast, a record for the county. Approximately 60 per cent of these were scratched, and this scratching, together with the numerous proposed measures, and the increased number of candidates due to the Progressive ticket, makes the count extremely tedious. Many of the judges will not complete their work until late today.

In the 32 precincts which reported straight and scratched votes are included 26 of the 29 precincts in Colorado Springs, Broadmoor, Ivywild, Roswell, and other outlying precincts. The Democrats polled 1,431 straight votes in these 32 precincts. The Progressives came second, with 1,223, and the Republicans were a poor third with 393. A total of 5,497 votes were scratched, so that the result by no means may be judged from the poll of the straight votes in the precincts heard from. Many who voted for Taft or Wilson scratched for Progressive county candidates. It appears reasonably certain that all county candidates on either of the old tickets, and also on the Progressive ticket have been elected, and many of the Progressives, running the race alone, stand a good chance for success.

The good weather and strenuous effort of the political organizations resulted in the heavy voting. Then, too, organizations working for or against various proposed measures brought out the vote. The remarkable strength of the Progressive party only three months after its organization was commented upon all over the city. From the incomplete returns thus far received, the Progressives will poll a plurality of several hundred over the Republicans, with prospects of about landing hundreds of scratched Democratic ballots and winning the county race.

From the incomplete returns thus far received, the Progressives will poll a plurality of several hundred over the Republicans, with prospects of about landing hundreds of scratched Democratic ballots and winning the county race.

PROGRESSIVES EXPECT TO CONTINUE ORGANIZATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Whatever happens at the polls today the Progressive party is to continue its organization and its party leaders will meet in Chicago on December 10 to make plans with this end in view. The headquarters in New York city will probably be maintained.

ELECTION BULLETINS

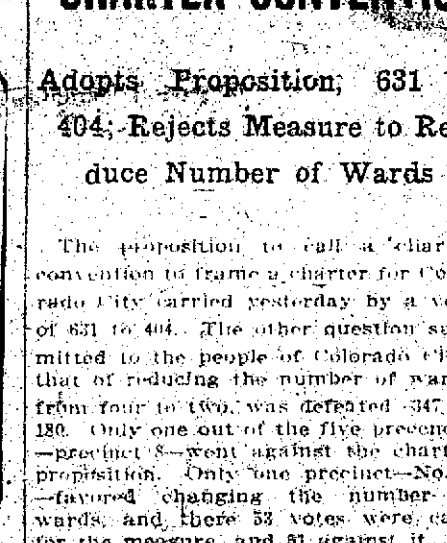

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of Ex-President Roosevelt, was elected to congress from the first Ohio district.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—With the vote of approximately half of the election district in Pennsylvania counted, the indications are that Roosevelt's plurality in the state will be from 25,000 to 35,000.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 5.—Roosevelt has carried Washington by probably 30,000 plurality over Wilson. Roosevelt has carried with him to victory the two Progressive candidates for congressmen-at-large, J. A. Falcouner and J. W. Bryan. For governor, 55 precincts give Lister, Democrat, 1,896; Hodges, Progressive, 1,892; Hay, Republican, 1,865.

COLO. CITY TO CALL CHARTER CONVENTION

Adopts Proposition, 631 to

duce Number of Wards

The proposition to call a charter convention to frame a charter for Colorado City carried yesterday by a vote of 631 to 404. The other question submitted to the people of Colorado City, that of reducing the number of wards from four to three, was defeated, 347 to 180. Only one out of the five precincts—precinct 8—went against the charter proposition. Only one precinct, No. 5—favored changing the number of wards, and there 53 votes were cast for the measure, and 81 against it.

The vote on the two measures was as follows:

SAFE BLOWERS ESCAPE WITH DETECTIVES NEAR

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Five alleged safe blowers escaped early today from cells under the detective bureau at police headquarters. The noise of their jail-breaking was unheard, owing to the loss of steam from a defective radiator.

Joseph D. Mirand, the leader of the gang, used a chair rung to break the lock on his cell. Exit from the building was found through a coal hole.

ILLINOIS JUDGE IS STRUCK BY ENGINE; BOTH LEGS CUT OFF

ELGIN, Ill., Nov. 5.—While Judge Henry B. Willis, presiding jurist of the northern division of the appellate court, was standing on a railroad track in front of a newspaper office, tonight, watching the election returns, he was struck by an engine and seriously injured. Both of his legs were cut off near the ankles. He also sustained serious injuries about the head.

Gazette Election Service

A crowd of between 4,000 and 5,000 stood for four hours in front of The Gazette building last night to see the election returns thrown on a screen by The Gazette. Pike's Peak avenue was jammed from curb to curb and even to the building line on the sidewalk opposite. Eager election fans, unable to get directly in front of the screen, crowded the street for a quarter of a block on each side.

The state and national returns, together with the latest news obtainable from El Paso county, were flashed to the waiting throng without a moment's delay, and moving pictures whiled away the time between bulletins. The election was better handled by The Gazette, and the crowds in waiting were larger than ever before in the city's history.

PARTY LEADERS REFUSE MAKE CONCESSIONS

Indications Are That Entire State Ticket Has Been Elected

DENVER, Nov. 5.—Incomplete returns from 45 of the 67 counties of the state received up to 2 o'clock this morning, showed Wilson's percentage slightly but was not sufficient to change materially the estimated plurality of 40,000 for the national Democratic ticket.

Indications were that the entire state Democratic ticket would be carried into office by the Wilson landslide. These indications were based on partial returns from 429 out of 1,412 precincts in Colorado at large, including 174 in Denver.

These figures give Wilson 38,153; Taft, 22,021; Roosevelt, 21,152; one hundred and forty-seven reporting Socialist and Prohibition votes give Debs, 1,180; Chaffin, 143. Party leaders are making no concessions and it probably will be late today before anything like definite returns are available.

PUEBLO, Nov. 5.—Thirty-eight precincts out of 66 in Pueblo county give Wilson 3,600; Taft, 1,135; Roosevelt, 1,035; Shafroth, 3,100; Dawson, 1,265; Catlin, 1,025; Thomas, 3,461; Waterman, 1,128; Stevens, 1,114; Taylor, 2,346; Keating, 3,245; Kinsey, 1,178; Layton, 1,100; Fisher, 1,100; Dodge, 1,285; Ammons, 324; Park, 1,360; Costigan, 1,400. County Vote on Proposed Laws and Amendments

Although no definite returns were received at an early hour this (Wednesday) morning on any of the proposed laws and amendments, it was generally conceded that El Paso county returned a majority of upwards of 2,500 against state-wide prohibition, against which the most vigorous fight was made.

It also is thought that large majorities were polled in the county against the proposed school and social center amendment and the Moffat tunnel bill, while the home rule bill received a big majority here. The recall of judges also was voted on favorably, judging from reports. No data regarding any of the other measures was obtainable up to the hour of going to press.

ROOSEVELT SENDS CONGRATULATION TO PRES. ELECT WILSON

OYSTER BAY, Nov. 5.—Shortly before midnight, Colonel Roosevelt made the following statement: "The American people, by a great plurality, have decided in favor of Mr. Wilson. The Democratic party, like all good citizens, I accept the result with entire good humor and contentment. As for the Progressive cause, I can only repeat what I have already said many times: the fate of the leader for the time being is of little consequence, but the cause itself must in the end triumph, for its triumph is essential to the well-being of the American people."

Colonel Roosevelt sent the following telegram to Governor Wilson: "The American people, by a great plurality, have conferred upon you the highest honor in their gift. I congratulate you thereon."

Taft Sends Message.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—President Taft at 11 o'clock tonight conceded the election of Governor Wilson. He issued the following statement from his library here: "The returns insure the election of Governor Wilson to the presidency. This means an early change in the economic policy of the government in reference to the tariff. If this change can be made without hurting prosperity, I sincerely hope it may be."

"While the experiment of a change in the tariff is being carried out by the Democratic administration, it behooves Republicans to stand again by the party standard and pledge anew their faith in their party's principles and to organize again to defend the constitutional government handed down to us by our fathers."

President Taft sent this telegram to Governor Wilson: "I cordially congratulate you on your election and extend to you my best wishes for a successful administration."

SENATOR WILLIAM H. TAFT

Ranger Would "Cut Up"
BRIDGEPORT, N. J., Nov. 5.—Governor Wilson sat tonight with a party of friends around a brilliantly illuminated dinner table as the election returns began to come in. Earlier than was anticipated, the first results showed the governor got more favorable and his comment was: "That's very good indeed."

"Governor Taft," Mr. Wilson said, "is the governor of the nation, and a stack of returns and a stack of returns."

"I wonder if I got arrested if I just shut off my guns. If it keeps on this way, I'll have to just turn 'em loose."

Wilson Wires Appreciation.
Responding to a cable from the Democratic national chairman, asserting that Governor Wilson unquestionably was elected, the Democratic candidate sent a dispatch to Mr. McCombs, as follows:

"I deeply appreciate your pleasure and wish to extend to you and the members of the campaign committee my warm congratulations on the part you have played in the organization and conduct of a campaign fought out upon a sound basis."

A great cause has triumphed. Every point of view has been represented, and the result is a victory for the people. The people's right to the government is now in their hands."

WILSON ELECTED

Edward F. Dunne, Democrat, appeared to be leading by a safe margin. Texas returned Oscar M. Gurnett. In Missouri the election of Elliott W. Major, Democrat, was conceded by Republican managers.

PROGRESSIVES WIN DESPITE RESULTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Progressive Headquarters.)—The election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency was claimed by the party leaders at the Democratic national headquarters within an hour after the first returns began to come in. Just before midnight Chairman McCombs sent the following to Governor Wilson:

"My warmest congratulations to you, our next president. You have won a splendid and significant victory. At this hour you appear to have received the largest electoral vote ever given to a presidential candidate. Indications are that your administration will be supported by a Congress Democratic in both houses."

"It is the people's victory. It seems to me the finest imaginable tribute to your character and purpose. That only has not the Democratic management made so much as an intimation of a pledge on your behalf, but has not been asked to do so. Your triumph, therefore, is not only great, but noble. We, whose privilege it has been to help along the great cause of true Democracy, embodied in you are very proud to have had the opportunity and are very, very happy."

REPUBLICANS ACCUSE ROOSEVELT OF DEFEAT
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Republican Headquarters.)—Responsibility for the defeat of President Taft "rests squarely and solely upon Mr. Roosevelt," said

Charles D. Bates, chairman of the Republican national committee, in a statement issued after midnight. "But for Mr. Roosevelt's action in deserting the Republican party," he said, "Mr. Taft could unquestionably have been elected."

CONGRATULATES WILSON ON GREAT VICTORY

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Democratic Headquarters.)—The election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency was claimed by the party leaders at the Democratic national headquarters within an hour after the first returns began to come in. Just before midnight Chairman McCombs sent the following to Governor Wilson:

ILLINOIS
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Colonel Roosevelt apparently swept Illinois today in the race for the presidency, according to returns received up to 3:30 o'clock tonight.

At that time, 1,070 precincts out of a total of 4,296 in the state, showed the following results: Roosevelt, 121,102; Wilson, 99,876; Taft, 82,318.

Judge Dunne, Democrat, of Chicago, appeared to have won the gubernatorial fight, with Dunne, Republican, second, and Park, Progressive, third. Six hundred and twenty-five precincts out of 4,296 gave Dunne 75,488; Dunne, 45,000; Park, 46,721.

One of the hottest fights of the day was waged in the Eighteenth congressional district, where former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon was a candidate for reelection against Frank T. O'Hair, Democrat, and E. E. Royce, Progressive. Only two precincts in Vermillion county had been heard from at 3:30 o'clock and they gave O'Hair 81; Cannon 110.

INDIANA
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Indiana apparently went overwhelmingly Democratic. Governor Wilson, on the basis of the returns from 317 precincts out of the 4,172 precincts in the state, had almost 50,000 more votes than Roosevelt and McCombs combined.

For governor, Samuel M. Taylor, Democrat, led over Albert J. Beveridge, Progressive, and Winfield T. Durbin, Republican.

IOWA
DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 5.—Election returns about one-fourth of the precincts in the state early today showed the situation, and put Woodrow Wilson ahead of Colonel Roosevelt by a plurality of 10,000.

MONTANA
HELENA, Mont., Nov. 5.—Returns at 11 o'clock showed that the Democratic candidate for president, senator and congressman, had been elected in Montana. With 17 precincts from every part of the state heard from, Wilson had 7,500 votes against 5,778 for Roosevelt and 3,500 for Taft.

NEW HAMPSHIRE
CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—Returns from 100 precincts in the state at 10 o'clock gave Taft 19,582; Wilson 19,557; Roosevelt 10,452.

NEW JERSEY
NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 5.—Wilson, 24,832; Taft, 19,512; Roosevelt, 24,832. These returns from 457 of the 1,072 precincts indicated at 3 o'clock this Wednesday morning that Wilson had carried his own state by at least 50,000 plurality.

NEW MEXICO
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 5.—Incomplete returns from 12 out of 26 counties received up to 10 o'clock gave Wilson a plurality of 2,500 in the state, while Ferguson, Democrat, for congress, is re-elected by a large plurality.

The half-million-dollar bond issue will carry by a big majority, while the constitutional amendment repealing the language clause may also carry.

NEW YORK
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Woodrow Wilson was the choice of the state of New York for president by a plurality estimated at midnight at about 200,000 from returns received from nearly every election district in the greater city of New York and from all but 600 of the 3,000 districts outside of New York city.

President Taft led Colonel Roosevelt in the same districts by about 35,000 votes.

Congressman William Sulzer was elected governor with a plurality of about 175,000.

NORTH DAKOTA
GRAND FORKS, N. D., Nov. 5.—With returns at 10 o'clock tonight the indications are that Wilson has carried North Dakota, but by what majority it is at this time is impossible to estimate.

At this hour the indications are that the Republican state ticket, headed by Congressman L. B. Hanna for governor, has won the election.

OHIO
CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—Nine hundred precincts out of the 5,211 in the state gave Wilson 50,344; Taft, 42,273; Roosevelt, 28,567, giving Governor Wilson a plurality of 18,021 in the 900 precincts.

OKLAHOMA
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 5.—Woodrow Wilson carried Oklahoma by a majority estimated at 30,000. Senator Robert L. Owen, candidate for reelection under the Oregon plan, defeated his Republican opponent, Judge J. B. Dickerson, by a large majority.

OREGON
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 5.—Scattered returns from the state and in-

MICHIGAN
DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—Incomplete returns up to 2 a. m. from throughout the state indicated with reasonable certainty that Roosevelt

CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Returns from 1,520 out of 4,572 precincts from the state, including one-third of Los Angeles county, and a little more than half of San Francisco county, show the following: Wilson, 90,250; Roosevelt, 85,288; Taft, 682; Debs, 11,920; Chaffin, 1,095.

CONNECTICUT
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 5.—Connecticut, which four years ago gave President Taft a plurality of 44,000, today gave good sized majorities to Governor Woodrow Wilson for president and Gov. Simon E. Dobbins, Democrat, for governor. To make the victory more complete, the Democrats elected nine five congressmen.

ILLINOIS
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Colonel Roosevelt apparently swept Illinois today in the race for the presidency, according to returns received up to 3:30 o'clock tonight.

At that time, 1,070 precincts out of a total of 4,296 in the state, showed the following results: Roosevelt, 121,102; Wilson, 99,876; Taft, 82,318.

would carry the state by at least 50,000 and that Peiris, the Democratic candidate for governor, would have a plurality of more than 25,000. Wilson was running second to Roosevelt.

Scattered reports from the state indicated woman suffrage would carry by a small plurality.

MINNESOTA
ST. PAUL, Nov. 5.—Woodrow Wilson was leading in Minnesota, according to returns at 10 o'clock. Forty-seven precincts out of 3,863 in the state gave Taft 1,022; Wilson, 1,537; Roosevelt, 1,440.

MISSOURI
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Although only 45 per cent of the precincts in the state outside of St. Louis had been heard from at 10:30 and the vote here had not begun to come in, the state, with 18 electoral votes is safely in the Democratic column.

MONTANA
HELENA, Mont., Nov. 5.—Returns at 11 o'clock showed that the Democratic candidate for president, senator and congressman, had been elected in Montana. With 17 precincts from every part of the state heard from, Wilson had 7,500 votes against 5,778 for Roosevelt and 3,500 for Taft.

NEW HAMPSHIRE
CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—Returns from 100 precincts in the state at 10 o'clock gave Taft 19,582; Wilson 19,557; Roosevelt 10,452.

OKLAHOMA
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 5.—Woodrow Wilson carried Oklahoma by a majority estimated at 30,000. Senator Robert L. Owen, candidate for reelection under the Oregon plan, defeated his Republican opponent, Judge J. B. Dickerson, by a large majority.

OREGON
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 5.—Scattered returns from the state and in-

MICHIGAN
DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—Incomplete returns up to 2 a. m. from throughout the state indicated with reasonable certainty that Roosevelt

complete returns from Multnomah county, Portland, indicate that Wilson has carried Oregon by a safe plurality, with Roosevelt second.

PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Returns from 2,884 districts out of 6,593 in Pennsylvania, gave Taft 149,538; Wilson, 174,018; Roosevelt, 179,300. The missing districts in Philadelphia are expected to add materially to Roosevelt's strength in this city.

In the state, the Roosevelt stronghold likewise remain to be heard from and the returns in hand indicate that Roosevelt has probably carried the state. The indications are that the state Republican ticket, Robert J. Young for state treasurer, and A. W. Powell for auditor general, was elected. The four Republican candidates for congressmen-at-large were all elected. The ticket had the Roosevelt endorsement.

RHODE ISLAND
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 5.—With two-thirds of the returns in and the missing ones largely from the cities, indications point to the state swinging into the Democratic column for the first time since the Civil war. The gubernatorial contest, was in doubt. Governor William J. Foster, Republican, and Theodore F. Green, Democrat, running a close race.

SOUTH DAKOTA
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 5.—Slow returns from scattered precincts of South Dakota indicate that Roosevelt has carried the state by a small plurality. Returns from 175 out of 1,653 precincts gave Wilson, 8,382; Roosevelt, 8,214; with Byrne, Republican, and Johnson, Democrat, for governor, running practically even.

TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 6.—Campaign managers for Governor Ben W. Hooper, Republican, early this morning are claiming his reelection as governor by 5,000 majority. Democratic managers, on the other hand, assert that the Democratic ticket, headed by former Governor Benton McMillan, has won.

Wilson's majority is large.

UTAH
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 6.—President Taft has carried Utah over Wilson, Gov. William Spry, Republican, has been re-elected and indications are Republican congressional ticket has been successful. Ninety-six districts out of 577 in Utah gave Taft 12,064; Wilson, 9,706; Roosevelt, 8,335.

VERMONT
WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Nov. 5.—President Taft was the winner in Vermont, today, by a plurality of 324 over Colonel Roosevelt. Mr. Taft received a total of 23,247 votes; Colonel Roosevelt, 22,323, and Governor Wilson, 15,397.

WASHINGTON
SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 5.—Seventy-six out of 1,902 precincts in the state gave Roosevelt, 5,803; Wilson, 3,799; Taft, 3,032.

WISCONSIN
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—Complete returns from Milwaukee county, and scattered precincts throughout the state, indicate that Governor Wilson has swept Wisconsin by from 20,000 to 30,000 votes.

Roosevelt is running behind President Taft, except in Winnebago county, which the Progressive candidate carried by a small majority over Wilson. Early reports indicate a close race between Karel, Democrat, and McGovern, Republican, for the governorship. Congressman Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee, the only Socialist in congress, was defeated for reelection by former Congressman William H. Stafford, who ran as a fusion candidate on the Democratic ticket. The entire Socialist ticket in Milwaukee went down in defeat before the nonpartisan coalition of Democrats and Republicans, with the possible exception of Winifred C. Zebel, present district attorney.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—Rockwell, Republican Wisconsin, slipped out of the G. O. P. column today and arrayed itself with Democracy by giving Governor Wilson an approximate plurality of 30,000 votes over President Taft.

Returns on the governorship outside of Milwaukee county give Governor McGovern, Republican, a lead of 15,000. The state ticket, headed by Governor Wilson, the Republican state ticket will have a plurality of 10,000.

WYOMING
CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 5.—Thirty-one precincts out of 473 in Wyoming gave Taft, 268; Wilson, 167; Roosevelt, 71. Mondell, Republican, for congress, and Republican legislative ticket are running ahead of the presidential ticket.

ARRAIGN SCHRANK THIS WEEK FOR ATTEMPTING LIFE COL. ROOSEVELT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 5.—John Schrank, who attempted to assassinate Colonel Roosevelt, will be arraigned in municipal court to enter a plea today. His plea, either "guilty" or "not guilty," according to a statement made at the district attorney's office, today.

As soon as his plea is entered, a commission of attorneys will probably be appointed by the county to make a formal inquiry into Schrank's mental condition.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 5.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson, Progressive candidate for vice president, did not vote today. Absent from his state on a campaign tour of the east, he deliberately sacrificed his vote to keep up the fight to last.

Can't Get Home, so He Votes by Mail

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—David W. Mulvane, manager of the Taft western headquarters, yesterday sent his vote by mail to his home in Topeka, Kan. A unique Kansas statute allows this privilege and Mr. Mulvane was obliged to take advantage of it because his duties as campaign manager prevented his returning home. Mr. Mulvane marked a sample ballot with his choice for the various offices at stake in the Kansas election. The ballot was mailed to the county clerk at Topeka, whose duty it is to turn the ballot over to the election officials in Mr. Mulvane's precinct. Today the ballot would be put into the poll box and counted with the votes cast.

FACE DISGRACEFUL WITH RASH

Large Scabs Would Form, Fester and Break, Itching and Burning, Kept from Sleeping, Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Stout Falls, N. D.—"My trouble of skin disease started as a rash on my face and neck, but it grew and kept getting worse until large scabs would form, fester and break. This was just on the left side of my face, but it soon scattered to the other side. I suffered a great deal especially at night on account of its itching and burning. I would scratch it and of course that irritated it very much. This rash was on my face for about two years sometimes breaking out into worse and forcing larger sores. It kept me up day or night for a couple of months. My face looked disgraceful, and I was almost ashamed to be seen by my friends."

"A friend asked me to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I would have my face with hot water and a lot of Cuticura Ointment. In less than two days' time, the scabs and inflammation had almost entirely disappeared, and in four weeks' time you could not see any of the rash. Now my face is without a spot of any kind. I also use them for my scalp and hair. They cured me completely."—Stout Falls, N. D., Nov. 6, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free with 10¢ Skin Bow. Address: Cuticura Soap Co., P. O. Box 100, New York, N. Y.

DYNAMITERS ATTEMPT TO WRECK NEW CHURCH

RACINE, Wis., Nov. 5.—A policeman, early today, discovered a three-pound package of dynamite under the corner of the Holland Reformed church, now in course of construction. The fuse had been lighted, and the dynamite was about to explode when it was extinguished before reaching the caps.

No reason for the attempted dynamiting can be ascribed.

ROOSEVELT SENDS CONGRATULATION TO PRES.-ELECT WILSON

Oyster Bay, Nov. 5.—Shortly before 10 o'clock, President Roosevelt made the following statement:

"The American people, by a great plurality, have decided in favor of Mr. Wilson and the Democratic party. I accept the result with entire good humor and contentment. As for the Progressive cause, I can only repeat what I have already so many times said: the fate of the leader for the time being is of little consequence, but the cause itself must in the end triumph, for its triumph is essential to the well-being of the American people."

Colonel Roosevelt sent the following telegram to Governor Wilson:

"The American people, by a great plurality, have conferred upon you the highest honor in their gift. I congratulate you thereon."

Taft Sends Message. CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—President Taft at 11 o'clock tonight conceded the election of Governor Wilson. He issued the following statement from his brother's home here:

"The returns insure the election of Governor Wilson to the presidency. This means an early change in the economic policy of the government in reference to the tariff. If this change can be made without halting prosperity, I sincerely hope it may be made."

"While the experiment of a change in the tariff is being carried out by the Democratic administration, it behooves Republicans to gather again to the party standard and pledge anew their faith in their party's principles and to organize again to defend the constitutional government handed down to us by our fathers."

President Taft sent this telegram to Governor Wilson:

"I cordially congratulate you on your election and extend to you my best wishes for a successful administration." (Signed) "WILLIAM H. TAFT."

Ranger Would "Cut Up."

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 5.—Governor Wilson sat tonight with a party of friends around a brilliantly illuminated dinner table as the election returns began to come in, earlier than was anticipated. The first results the governor got were favorable and his comment was: "That's very encouraging."

Captain "Bill" McDonald, the Texas ranger who is the governor's bodyguard, read a stack of returns and exclaimed:

"I wonder if I'd get arrested if I just shot off my guns. If it keeps up this way, I'll have to just turn 'em loose."

Wilson Wires Appreciation. Responding to a telegram from the Democratic national chairman, asserting that Governor Wilson unquestionably was elected, the Democratic candidate sent a dispatch to Mr. McDonald, as follows:

"I deeply appreciate your telegram and wish to extend to you and the members of the campaign committee, my warm congratulations on the part you have played in the organization and conduct of a campaign fought out upon essential issues."

"A great cause has triumphed. Every Democrat, every true Progressive, of whatever alliance, must now lend his full force and enthusiasm to the fulfillment of the people's hope, the establishment of the people's right, so that justice and progress may go hand in hand."

WILSON ELLECTED

Edward F. Dunne, Democrat, appeared to be leading by a safe margin. Texas returned Oscar B. Colquitt. In Missouri the election of which W. Major, Democrat, was conceded by Republican managers.

PROGRESSIVES WIN DESPITE RESULTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Progressive Headquarters.) United States Senator Dixon, chairman of the Progressive national committee, gave out the following statement after midnight at Progressive national headquarters here:

"The election returns tonight show that more than 4,000,000 voters have united under the banner of the Progressive party. They have chosen for the war."

"The result of today's balloting makes the Progressive party the dominant opponent of the Democratic party. Today the old Republican party becomes the third party in American politics. We are going forward immediately with our plans to complete our organization for the congressional election two years from this time."

"I have issued a call for the Progressive national committee to meet at Chicago at December 10. The fight to drive special privilege from American politics has just begun."

REPUBLICANS ACCUSE ROOSEVELT OF DEFEAT

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Republican Headquarters.)—Responsibility for the defeat of President Taft "rests squarely and solely upon Mr. Roosevelt," said

Charles D. Miller, chairman of the Republican national committee, in a statement issued after midnight. "But for Mr. Roosevelt's action in deserting the Republican party," he said, "Mr. Taft could unquestionably have been elected."

CONGRATULATES WILSON ON GREAT VICTORY

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Democratic Headquarters.)—The election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency was claimed by the party leaders at the Democratic national headquarters with an hour after the first returns began to come in. Just before midnight Chairman McAdams sent the following to Governor Wilson:

"My warmest congratulations to you, our next president. You have won a splendid and significant victory. At this hour you appear to have received the largest electoral vote ever given to a presidential candidate. Indications are that your administration will be supported by a Congress Democratic in both houses."

"It is the people's victory. It seems to me the most imaginable tribute to your character and purpose that only has not the Democratic management not made a mistake as an indication of a pledge for your behalf, but has not been asked to do so. Your triumph, therefore, is not only great, but noble. We, whose privilege it has been to help along the great cause of true Democracy embodied in you, are very proud to have had the opportunity and are very, very happy."

At that time, 1,000 precincts out of a total of 4,398 in the state, showed the following results:

Roosevelt, 121,192; Wilson, 99,840; Taft, 62,215.

Judge Dunne, Democrat, of Chicago, appeared to have won the gubernatorial fight, with Dunne, Republican, second, and Wilson, Progressive, third. Six hundred and ninety-five precincts out of 4,295 gave Dunne 75,483; Dunne, 47,593; and Funk, 46,721.

ARIZONA

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 5.—Early returns from Arizona indicate that Governor Wilson carried every one of the 14 counties in the state with the possible exception of Cochise county, in which Taft had a lead of four votes at 10 o'clock.

CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Returns from 1,520 out of 4,372 precincts from the state, including one-third of Los Angeles county, and a little more than half of San Francisco county, show the following: Wilson, 99,835; Roosevelt, 85,228; Taft, 823; Debs, 11,020; Cullen, 1,000.

CONNECTICUT

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 5.—Connecticut, which four years ago gave President Taft a plurality of 41,000 today gave good sized majorities to Gov. Woodrow Wilson for president and Gov. Simon E. Baldwin, Democrat, for governor. To make the victory more complete, the Democrats elected all five congressmen.

ILLINOIS

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Colonel Roosevelt apparently swept Illinois today in the race for the presidency, according to returns received up to 9:30 o'clock tonight.

At that time, 1,000 precincts out of a total of 4,398 in the state, showed the following results:

Roosevelt, 121,192; Wilson, 99,840; Taft, 62,215.

Judge Dunne, Democrat, of Chicago, appeared to have won the gubernatorial fight, with Dunne, Republican, second, and Wilson, Progressive, third. Six hundred and ninety-five precincts out of 4,295 gave Dunne 75,483; Dunne, 47,593; and Funk, 46,721.

One of the hottest fights of the day was waged in the eighteenth congressional district, where Former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon was a candidate for reelection against Frank T. O'Hair, Democrat, and E. F. Royce, Progressive. Only two precincts in Vermilion county had been heard from at 9:30 o'clock and they gave O'Hair 91; Cannon 110.

INDIANA

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Indiana apparently went overwhelmingly Democratic. Governor Wilson, on the basis of the returns from 1,000 precincts out of the 3,172 precincts in the state, had almost as many votes as Taft and Roosevelt combined.

For governor, Samuel M. Rafton, Democrat, led over Albert J. Beveridge, Progressive, and Winfield T. Durbin, Republican.

IOWA

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 5.—Figures from about one-fourth of the precincts in the state early today reversed the situation, and put Woodrow Wilson ahead of Colonel Roosevelt by a plu-would carry the state by at least 50,000 and that for the Democratic candidate for governor, would have a plurality of more than 25,000. Wilson was running second to Roosevelt.

GOV. SIMEON BALDWIN, Democrat, Probably Re-elected Governor of Connecticut.

Scattering reports from the state indicate woman suffrage would carry by a small margin.

MINNESOTA

ST. PAUL, Nov. 5.—Woodrow Wilson was leading in Minnesota, according to returns at 10 o'clock. Forty-seven precincts out of 2,953 in the state gave Taft 1,002; Wilson, 1,562; Roosevelt, 1,340.

MISSOURI

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Although only 10 per cent of the precincts in the state outside of St. Louis had been heard from at 10:30, and the vote here had just begun to come in, the state, with its 18 electoral votes is safely in the Democratic column.

MONTANA

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 5.—Returns at 1 a. m. indicated that the Democratic candidates for president, senator and congressman have been elected in Montana. With 157 precincts from every part of the state heard from Wilson has 7,426 votes against 5,778 for Roosevelt and 5,508 for Taft.

Wilson, Democrat, for senator, is leading Dixon, Progressive, by 1,200 votes, with Smith, Republican, third.

Stewart, Democrat, for governor, is leading Wilson, Republican, by over 100 votes, with Edwards, Progressive far behind.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—Returns from 190 election precincts out of 290 in New Hampshire give Taft, 19,355; Wilson, 18,847; Roosevelt, 10,433.

In 1908 gave Taft, 21,330; Bryan, 18,920.

NEW JERSEY

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 5.—Wilson, 39,983; Taft, 19,513; Roosevelt, 26,582. These returns from 457 of New Jersey's 1,173 districts indicated at 5 o'clock this Wednesday morning that Wilson had carried his own state by at least 50,000 plurality.

NEW MEXICO

AIRQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 5.—Incomplete returns from 12 out of 26 counties received up to 10 o'clock give Wilson a plurality of 2,500 in the state, while Ferguson, Democrat, for congress, is re-elected by a large plurality.

The half-million-dollar bond issue will carry by a big majority, while the constitutional amendment repealing the language clause may also carry.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Woodrow Wilson was the choice of the state of New York for president by a plurality estimated at midnight at about 200,000 from returns received from nearly every election district in the greater city of New York and from all but 500 of the 3,000 districts outside of New York city.

President Taft led Colonel Roosevelt in the same districts by about 50,000 votes.

Congressman William Sulzer was elected governor with a plurality of about 75,000.

NORTH DAKOTA

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Nov. 5.—With returns at 10 o'clock tonight the indications are that Wilson has carried North Dakota, but by what majority it is at this time is impossible to estimate.

At this hour the indications are that the Republican state ticket, headed by Congressman L. B. Hanna for governor, has won the election.

OHIO

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—Nine hundred precincts out of the 5,211 in the state gave Wilson, 60,191; Taft, 42,273; Roosevelt, 26,657; giving governor or Wilson a plurality of 18,021 in the 500 precincts.

OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 5.—Woodrow Wilson carried Oklahoma by a majority estimated at 30,000. Senator Robert L. Owen, candidate for reelection under the Oregon plan, defeated his Republican opponent, Judge J. B. Dickerson, by a large majority.

complete returns from Multnomah county (Portland) indicate that Wilson has carried Oregon by a safe plurality, with Roosevelt second.

PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Returns from 2,381 districts out of 5,592 in Pennsylvania gave Taft, 149,531; Wilson, 174,018; Roosevelt, 178,309. The missing districts in Philadelphia are expected to add materially to Roosevelt's strength in this city.

In the state, the Roosevelt strongholds likewise seem to be held from the indications in hand indicate that Roosevelt has probably carried the state. The indications are that the state Republican ticket, Robert J. Young for state treasurer, and A. W. Powell for auditor general, was elected. The four Republican candidates for congressman at large were all elected. The ticket had the Roosevelt endorsement.

RHODE ISLAND

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 5.—With two-thirds of the returns in and the missing ones largely from the cities, indications point to the state swinging into the Democratic column for the first time since the Civil war. The gubernatorial contest was in doubt. Governor Aram J. Pothier, Republican, and Theodore Francis Green, Democrat, running a close race.

SOUTH DAKOTA

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 5.—Slow returns from scattered precincts of South Dakota indicate that Roosevelt has carried the state by a small plurality. Returns from 175 out of 1,553 precincts gave Wilson, 8,882; Roosevelt, 8,214; with Bryan, Republican, and Johnson, Democrat, for governor, running practically even.

TENNESSEE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5.—Campaign managers for Governor Ben W. Hooper, Republican, early this morning were assuming his reelection as governor by 5,000 majority. Democratic managers, on the other hand, assert that the Democratic ticket, headed by Former Governor Benton McMillan, has won.

Wilson's majority is large.

UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 5.—President Taft has carried Utah over Wilson, Gov. William Spry, Republican, has been re-elected and indications are Republican congressional tickets have been successful. Ninety-six districts out of 577 in Utah gave Taft, 12,064; Wilson, 9,705; Roosevelt, 6,335.

VERMONT

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Nov. 5.—President Taft was the winner in Vermont, today, by a plurality of 325 over Colonel Roosevelt. Mr. Taft received a total of 23,247 votes; Colonel Roosevelt, 22,223, and Governor Wilson, 15,397.

WASHINGTON

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 5.—Seventy-six out of 1,903 precincts in the state gave Roosevelt, 5,803; Wilson, 3,799; Taft, 3,032.

WISCONSIN

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—Complete returns from Milwaukee county, and scattered precincts throughout the state, indicate that Governor Wilson has swept Wisconsin by from 20,000 to 30,000 votes.

Roosevelt is running behind President Taft, except in Winnebago county, which the Progressive candidate carried by a small majority over Wilson. Early reports indicate a close race between Karl, Democrat, and McGovern, Republican, for the governorship. Congressman Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee, the only Socialist in congress, was defeated for reelection by former Congressman William H. Stafford, who ran as a fusion candidate on the Democratic ticket. The entire Socialist ticket in Milwaukee went down in defeat before the nonpartisan coalition of Democrats and Republicans, with the possible exception of Winifred C. Zebel, present district attorney.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—Rocky Mountain Wisconsin slipped out of the G. O. P. column today and arrayed itself with Democracy by giving Governor Wilson an approximate plurality of 20,000 votes over President Taft.

Returns on the governorship outside of Milwaukee county give Governor McGovern, Republican, a lead of 19,000 over Judge John C. Karel, Democrat. The Republican state ticket will have a plurality of 10,000.

WYOMING

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 5.—Thirty-one precincts out of 475 in Wyoming gave Taft, 258; Wilson, 147; Roosevelt, 71. Monell, Republican, for congress, and Republican legislative ticket are running ahead of the presidential ticket.

ARRAIGN SCHRANK THIS WEEK FOR ATTEMPTING LIL COL. ROOSEVELT

WILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 5.—John Schranks, who attempted to assassinate Colonel Roosevelt, will be arraigned in Milwaukee court today on a charge of conspiracy to murder either Thursday or Friday, according to an announcement made at the district attorney's office today.

As soon as his plea is entered, a commission of allies will probably be appointed by the county to make a formal inquiry into Schranks' mental condition.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 5.—Governor William W. Johnson, from legislative candidate for vice-president.

"WILSON THAT'S ALL"

WE earnestly hope that the Democratic donkey will awaken this morning with a proper realization of the weight and dignity of its new honors. For sixteen years the beast has been forced to subsist chiefly on a contemplation of its glorious past and the hope of an equally glorious future. But yesterday it got a real meat ticket, a free pass to the rich grazing grounds in Washington, good for four long years.

Of course there is only one explanation for the substantial victory of Governor Wilson, and that has long been discounted. The Democratic party, until six months ago, was as badly disorganized as ever and as unfit to enter a campaign. It was merely a mass of warring factions, but it was lucky in being not quite so badly shattered as the Republican party. This fact gave it a reasonable chance of victory, and that chance proved the saving grace.

It is not because of the strength of their candidate that the Democrats yesterday's election, and still less because of the strength of their cause; it is simply because they had, for once, the gumption to realize that by settling their internecine differences and sticking together, they could win. Countless thousands of Democrats who are at heart Progressives, and who, under any other conditions, would have voted the Progressive ticket, stood by their old party simply because it offered almost a certainty of victory. This explains the Progressive defeat as well as the Democratic triumph.

But are the Progressives really defeated? As to the election of a President, yes. As to establishing themselves as the balance of power in American politics and making the principles for which they are fighting the dominant political issue, no, a thousand times no. Yesterday's setback is a mere incident; the Progressive fight will go on and the Progressive cause will ultimately triumph, just as surely as this is a government of principles rather than of politicians.

NEGLECTED OPPORTUNITIES

SCATTERED throughout Eastern El Paso county are some 1,000 or more families comprising 6,000 or 7,000 persons. Colorado Springs is the logical shopping point for this entire farming section; it is near, easy of access, and can supply all demands on call. We should get all this trade, but as a matter of fact we get only a comparatively small part of it.

The Chamber of Commerce and the merchants generally would do well to go after this business. Closer relationship has been established, to a certain extent, but more in a social than in a business way. "Get-together" trips have been made by some of the merchants through part of the farming territory, and the various fairs and celebrations have been attended by Springs residents, but here the work has stopped. Literature of various kinds should be sent to all the farmers in Eastern El Paso county. Catalogs of Colorado Springs houses should be found in the ranch homes, instead of those issued by Eastern mail order concerns.

When the ranchman is shown that he can buy practically everything in Colorado Springs at prices fully as low as from mail order houses, when he realizes how much more quickly he can have his order filled here, and what it means to deal with a reliable business firm at close range, he will turn to this city for his supplies. But he must be shown all this.

The farmers of this district, whether or not they availed themselves of the seed and feed fund last spring, all have a kindly feeling toward Colorado Springs as a result of that fund. Now is the time to crystallize this feeling into business relationship. The farmer would gain by trading here, and this increased business would add materially to the prosperity of Colorado Springs. This point should be pressed home.

A POSTAL IMPROVEMENT

IN these days of scientific management the people of the United States are wont to pat themselves on the back and take pride in the belief that they lead the world in those economies in small matters which lead to decreased production costs and business efficiency in general. However true this may be, the fact that people of other countries are making efforts along the same lines must not be lost sight of and we should be on the watch to seize and adopt any of their ideas that are applicable to our needs. The necessity for reducing the operating costs of our postoffice department has long been known and many means to this end have been discussed. The New Zealand postal officials have recently introduced a stamping machine that appears to be applicable to use in this and other countries and to effect a decided economy to both the government and the user of stamps.

In a general way this machine resembles the stamping machines used by many business concerns to stamp the values on their checks. In using it the letter is inserted and an indicator turned to the amount required for postage after which the pressing of a lever stamps this amount on the letter. A series of dials similar to those on a gas or electric meter indicates the total sum stamped by the machine. Each machine has an identifying mark incorporated in its stamp. The machines are rented at a nominal rate to those desiring them. They have not altogether replaced the use of the ordinary adhesive stamp. Machines working on the penny-in-the-slot principle were tried but were not found satisfactory and were replaced by the registering kind above described. They are used chiefly by commercial concerns and those sending out a great deal of mail.

Even though the machines are not of universal application they effect a great economy. The government saves the cost of printing and selling the stamps and it is much less labor to use the machine than to separate and affix the adhesive stamps. It appears to us that the machine fills a long felt want and that it is only a question of time until its use becomes universal.

FROM OTHER PENS

FROM THE NEW YORK SUN.

Cuba is on trial today and every thoughtful Cuban is nervously aware of it. When Tomas Estrada Palma was elected president by vote of the people on December 21, 1901, the general commanding a United States army of occupation supervised the election by direction of the war department. United States troops were available to preserve order when the voting booths were opened on November 14, 1908, for the second national election, which resulted in the choice of Jose Miguel Gomez. On May 28, 1902, General Leonard Wood turned the government of the island over to President Palma and the army withdrew. There was a similar function on March 21, 1909, but at that time it was not the army of occupation but the army of pacification that departed, a distinction to be noted.

The question suggested as the polls open in Cuba today is whether the presence of another army of pacification will be necessary to save the Cubans from themselves again. It must be understood that there is no demand for annexation outside the island, and the agitation is limited almost entirely to certain business interests which would thrive far better under a stable government and would care nothing about the flag that waved over it. If Cuba is on trial today it is her own fault. For the revolt against the Palma government there were plausible reasons. Spanish laws and methods unsuited to a democracy still survived. The judiciary was not independent, municipal autonomy was little more than a name, and congressional representation of minority parties was a farce. For this condition of things the national legislature was to blame, and the moderate party took advantage of it. President Palma was public spirited and honest, but he could not control the politicians or prevent abuses of patronage or keep politics out of the rural guard. His failure was inevitable, because Cuba had not been started right.

The task of starting Cuba right fell to Governor Magoon. Under his administration the Cuban organic law was remodeled by General Enoch H. Crowder, the ablest lawyer of the army, and a cabinet of competent assistants. The powers of the president were strictly defined, the courts reformed, the jurisdiction of executive departments fixed, and the provinces were made as independent as the central government was feasible. Particularly were the election laws overhauled and adapted to the requirements of popular government. The labors of General Crowder rightly regarded were a boon to Cuba. The Cubans recognized their obligation at the time. The election of Gomez as president was a logical conclusion, but at that election the Cubans were the dupes. They were shown how to hold a national election under forms of law prepared for them, and the election was a farce, not only because the Cubans had nothing to fight about, but because the army of pacification was present to look on.

Today the Cubans are holding their first national election without the help of the United States. There is no excuse in existing laws, nor even in the alleged abuses and corruption of the Gomez administration, for insinuation, because on this day the Cubans have an opportunity to elect an eminent conservative, Mario Menocal, as president, the republic if they are dissatisfied with Liberal politics and do not approve of Alfredo Zayas, the Liberal candidate. If the election passes without ugly rioting and the result is accepted by the defeated party in good faith, congratulations to Cuba will be in order. A new era will begin and independence will have a higher significance.

DISTINCTIONS OF INSANITY

From the Pittsburgh Dispatch.
Discussing "the prevention of assassinations" and the proposition for abundant "preventive clinics" for the detection and arrest of "insane criminals" in earlier stages, the New York World takes England for an example and makes the assertion: "Public men are not exposed to assassination in England because in England long and severe enforcement of the criminal law has endeavored a respect for human life in lunatics as well as in other people." We have no disposition to dispute that the more heinous the crime the more the law should be inflexible in its enforcement, but the logic of necessary consequences. The same may be true even to the verge of unreasonableness. When he goes beyond that point and is oblivious to the consequences of acts, his insanity may take the course of homicidal mania, pyromania and kleptomania, according to the prevalent belief.

Of course this does not explain why three American presidents have been killed, while none of the British royalties have suffered. May not that be due to the fact that British royalty is more carefully guarded than American presidents, there having been several attempts upon them during the past 50 years? Further than that, is not the sentiment of loyalty and veneration for the throne more universal for the English monarch than for American presidents? For the issue may be swayed by sentiment, though not by reason. Indeed, there is a bad distinction that insanity is sentiment without regard to consequences, while sanity puts consequences first and sentiment second.

A NOISELESS TOWN?

From the Pittsburgh Dispatch.
While other cities have talked about the suppression of unnecessary noises the antinoise committee of the Baltimore Medical Society has acted. One of the first moves was to appeal to the pastors of churches with bells asking that the ringing and chiming of church bells be abandoned or at least stopped during the early morning hours, when a large proportion of the population feels like shutting off the alarm and turning over for "just five minutes more." This week the committee is after factory whistles and will endeavor to get factory managers to stop a week's whistling. The committee argues that alarm clocks are cheap enough to be within the reach of the poorest these days, and that there is really no longer any necessity for either the church bell to summons worshippers or the factory whistle to call employees to labor. If people want to attend church or go to work, they know the times, and it is up to them and the rest who do not wish to have their sleep broken should be left undisturbed.

The committee might argue further that wakening to a whistle is largely a matter of habit, just as being accustomed to sleeping through the whistling is, but that would, of course, destroy their contention. People on moving to a street where a carline runs or near a railroad may find their sleep broken for a few nights, but they soon get used to it and sleep right on. But this does not say that unnecessary noise should be continued unabated. There is far too much of it—whistles, bells, gongs, noisy milkmen, cat roosters, and so forth. The effort of the Baltimore noise suppressors will be watched with interest, and if they can succeed, their success may lead to emulation elsewhere, to the resulting benefit of the nerves and ears of the nation.

A Fable for You and Me

By RUTH CAMERON.

Once upon a time a Married Lady with a Perfectly Good Husband and Three Remarkable Children met a Lone Lost Friend of her Girlhood in a Tea room.

Now the Friend of her Girlhood was still a Spinster, or, as she preferred to call it, a Bachelor Girl. Instead of a Perfectly Good Husband and Three Remarkable Children she had a lone cat. She painted Miniatures of ivory and she lived in a Studio with another Bachelor Girl and three Angora cats.

Now after these "Two Friends" had fallen upon each other's necks in true Friend-of-once-a-Girlhood style, they drew off and began to talk as fast as they could.

"For while each one asked questions and answered the other's Special Interests and Pretended to listen to the answer, but before very long they began to act more Natural, and this is the way the dialogue ran:

The Married Lady: "My dear, you must come and see me. We have the dearest little house on Rose Street. It has eight rooms and two baths, and the cunning little yard for the babies to play in."

Girlhood Friend: "Is that so? I wish I had a yard for my cats, but I have to give them their exercise on the roof."

The Married Lady: "Is that so? Ruth has a little kitten. I wish you could see her play with it. She's too cunning for anything."

Girlhood Friend: "Yes, dear. I know she must be. I've been painting some pictures of Mrs. L. lately. They are rather hard subjects, but Mrs. L. probably knows more about her little girl—You probably know Mrs. L. a sufrage leader."

The Married Lady: "Oh, a sufrage leader? I never heard of her. Speaking of pictures, I think Gretchen is going to have artistic talent. She draws the loveliest pictures of her slate. You can almost guess what they are meant for without her telling you."

Girlhood Friend: "How nice. My dear, I met the stunningest man the other day. Just the type you used to love, dark hair and gray eyes, and thin. And so interesting."

The Married Lady: "How nice! Do you know my husband has known quite a few of them? I shall have to get another cook if this fellow's that effect on him. We have the best cook in town I do believe. We got her at R's employment Bureau."

Girlhood Friend: "Did you really? As I was saying, that man is one of the most interesting people I ever met. He is a journalist and he knows the latest people. He promised to have a tea in his study and invite some of them to meet me."

The Married Lady: "Did he really? I used to go to a lot of teas, myself, but I can't remember having a tea. You know, Gretchen is rather slow. She is only 5 and has had the measles, the mumps, whooping cough and scarlet fever already."

At this juncture the Girlhood Friend remembered an appointment, and they kissed each other good-by. Afortingly and promised to meet again soon. That night the Married Lady told her Perfectly Good Husband that she had met her Girlhood Friend. "And she paints pictures and does a good deal of Bohemian people," she said. "And she can't talk of anything else. I never saw anyone so self-centered."

The Day After Election By GEORGE FITCH. Author of "At Good Old Bivens"

Of all the days that are different the day after election is the differentest. There is a much difference between the day before election and the day after, and there is a difference between the day after election and the day after election. The day after election is a flat, gray day composed of

The day before election is a flat, gray day composed of despair, indignation, indifference and exhaustion in equal parts.

"Demosthenes on the tariff wouldn't draw four people."

On the day before election a phonograph with a dull needle could draw a crowd anywhere by making a political speech. On the day after election demosthenes on the tariff wouldn't draw four people from a patent medicine advertisement.

On the day before election any loyal party man would stop four hours on his way home to go to let a little light into the dusty gait of a member of another party. On the day after election he wouldn't go across the street to convert a whole ward.

The day after election is full of vain regrets, wild sorrow, indignant re-primand, and wisdom delayed in transmission. It is also full of solemn exalted joy, breathless triumph and magnificent vindication. It is full, in fact, of everything but politics. It is about the only day in the year that is entirely free from politics. It is the one vacation day in the year for politicians. Those who have saved their country take a brief rest and tell it to go to thunder, while those who have lost it ever by their country, while trying to save it spend a few gloomy hours awaiting its awful fate with entire indifference.

The day after election is also distinguished by the number of friendships which meet a sudden and terrible fate. On the day before election the love of a candidate for his fellow man is so great that he will run a glib tongue over his country, while trying to save it spend a few gloomy hours awaiting its awful fate with entire indifference.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Good fortune and social success await you. Avoid prejudice, and favoritism, and keep friendly with all, if possible. Be especially careful in writing.

Those born today will have sensitive nerves and should not be allowed too much noise and excitement when very young. Periods of complete rest and quiet will strengthen them. Their lives will be eventful and happy.

PIUGGING HOLES WITH COMPRESSED AIR

From the Popular Mechanics Magazine.

A method of rendering vessels unsinkable by means of compressed air, applied in such a manner as to plug or seal the leaks and prevent water from entering the hull, was recently tested out on the battleship North Carolina.

The important feature of the method of applying the compressed air to prevent water from entering the vessel through holes is the graduated pressure of air exerted in the compartments surrounding the punctured compartment.

The vessel has a draft of 30 feet. The application of sufficient pressure to keep the water from entering a hole near the bottom of the hull would subject the upper decks to a very considerable pressure which might cause the hull to strain. When, however, a hole is punctured in the lower portion of the hull, and the air pressure required by the hydrostatic pressure is exerted to keep the water out, the compartments immediately above and around the punctured compartment are reinforced by a lighter air pressure and these compartments are in turn supported by applying a still lighter pressure to the next surrounding compartments. This, it is claimed, prevents the straining or buckling of decks, bulkheads, etc.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held with Mayor Robbins in the chair. A few bills were allowed, and the meeting adjourned for a couple of days.

THE HASKIN LETTER PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS XXVI ELECTION RETURNS

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

Perhaps never in the history of the world were so many people bent upon winning, as soon as possible, the outcome of a great political battle as last night. More than 42,000,000 people live in the cities and towns of the country, having a population of 2,500 and upward. Add to these the millions living in towns and villages where there are telegraph offices, and it will be seen that more than half of the population of the country is within the zone of telegraphic news of the election, and a census of election night might show that two-thirds of the homes within this zone were represented by someone who stood before a bulletin board, sat in a theater, or spent the evening at his club watching the returns come in.

Add to these the millions of rural telephones which are used to call up the nearest newspaper offices, and it is probable that more than two-thirds of all the people of the country learned something of how the election went before going to sleep last night. Even in the little towns of four or five hundred population the moving picture theater was able to capitalize upon the universal interest in the result by getting the bulletins and throwing them on their screens.

Great Number Candidates.

It is certain that never before in the history of the country were there so many candidates directly interested in the returns. It takes fingers on both hands to count the candidates for president and vice president, and in the majority of states each ticket had its electors. Supposing there were an average of six tickets in the field in each of the states, that would represent 3,156 electors on the presidential tickets. Then, suppose there is an average of three candidates for congress in each congressional district, that would represent a total of 1,200 men with ambitions to go to the house of representatives. Then there are 23 states which elect governors and other state officials, members of the legislature, etc. There are thousands of counties which select their local officers: thousands of school and road officers, which choose school and road officers, presidents of cities and towns like, and thousands of cities and towns which join in the general official choosing program of the Tuesday after the first Monday of every quadrennial year. Someone has figured that more than a million jobs are filled as a direct or indirect result of the elections of the presidential year. When it is considered that this is only one place to every 40 people, it is probable that the figures are conservative.

The Democrats felt that they were entitled to some enthusiastic speculation last night. No Democrat under 41 years of age has had the privilege of seeing his candidate win since he became a voter in presidential elections, and more than 40,000,000 of the country's population cannot remember the day when the returns showed a Democratic president.

Of the nearly 25,000,000 men in the United States of voting age, only 11,000,000 were old enough to vote when the Democrats last secured the country's verdict, if we accept the congressional election of two years ago. In the 20 years that have elapsed since Cleveland's second election, there have been five presidential and congressional elections, and in all the time before the congressional election of 1910, it was the Republicans who could cheer the returns.

First Under Complete Flag.

Yesterday's election was the first held under the complete flag. Since last time the country passed its judgment upon the account of stewardship rendered by the party in power, Arizona and New Mexico have come into the Union, bringing with them six electoral votes. There have been three elections in the history of the country in which those six votes could have determined the election. They might have given Jefferson the election over Adams. In the first Jefferson election they could have thrown the presidency to Burr, and in 1876 Hayes might have been prevented from winning even by the aid of an electoral commission.

The rapidity and accuracy with which 16,000,000 votes are counted in a presidential year is not the least remarkable feature of the election of a president. With ballots in some states so large that they look more fit for a billboard than for a ballot box, a comparison of the unofficial with the official returns always shows a surprisingly small margin of error and remarkable care in conducting the count. From many thousands of precincts in the rural districts the returns come in over the telephone to the county seat, and yet, with everybody keyed to the pitch of the evening, there are comparatively few mistakes.

The returns last night were the most elaborate in the history of the country. Every telegraph and telephone company throughout the United States lent itself to the early announcement of the result, and every newspaper and press association did its part. Of course New York led off with an election night crowd. It always does. A reporter, despairing of success in an attempt to portray the amount of noise made by the New York election crowds, in desperation wrote: "If 400 lunatic asylums had turned loose their entire list of inmates, and the biggest band of Apaches and Comanche Indians that ever gathered had been commissioned to help them make weird and uncanny noises, it still would have been but the soft sigh of a lovesick maiden as compared with the noise that started below Newspaper Row and swept on up-town and across the Harlem."

Advantage in Time.

The clock and the sun give the west the advantage of the east in the matter of election returns. The voters of the Pacific coast can usually know how the Atlantic states have gone almost by the time the sunset land quits voting. California cannot begin its count until several hours after New York has started counting.

The voting machine is gradually extending its field, and it is predicted by many that it will not be more than a decade until it will take the place of the ballot throughout the country. As it works like an adding machine and gives its totals as soon as the last vote is cast, it will enable the country to know how the election goes almost as soon as the last vote is cast. In some places the voter is given the choice of voting by machine or by ballot. But where the two have been tried the voting machine has proved the favorite.

In the early days of the republic there were no big November elections such as we know today. In the beginning only a few states allowed the people to have any choice of the electors at all, most of them allowing the legislature to choose the electors. And they had as many different times for choosing electors as they now have for selecting United States senators. Each state could select its electors at any time before the electoral colleges were scheduled to meet. It was not until 1828 that the people had a direct voice in the choosing of electors in all of the states except South Carolina, and South Carolina did not have its citizens choose electors until it came back into the Union after the Civil war. In the early days first one state and then another would choose its electors, and it would be many weeks before the full number was chosen. Pennsylvania could know how New York voted before it began to vote.

Universal Vote in 1848.

Not until 1848 did all the states make their choice of electors on the same day. Before that some of them would vote in the latter weeks of October and others on varying days up to the last of November. Therefore, election returns, as we know them, were impossible until 44 years ago. There are nearly a million native-born Americans living today who were old enough to vote when the present general election was an unknown institution. Congress passed a law in 1845 providing that the electors should be chosen in all the states on the same day, and fixing that day as the Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

That accounts for the fact that the first election bulletins were given out in 1848, and it was the New Orleans Picayune which started the idea. General Zachary Taylor was a Louisianian, and the people there wanted to know how things were going. Hence the innovation.

Special effort was made last night to reach everybody with the election

4,228 TONS OF COPPER EXPORTED DURING WEEK
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The exports of copper last week were 4,228 tons and the total for the month of October 24,670 tons, equivalent to 55,390,800 pounds.

The deliveries into domestic consumption, estimated at the average monthly movement of the year, were approximately 71,000,000 pounds, indicating total October deliveries of about 127,000,000 pounds.

The output of the refineries is expected to exceed 14,000,000 pounds, but even on this basis there will have been a further increase of about 13,000,000 pounds in producer's surplus stocks.

The imports of copper at Atlantic ports during the week ending October 31 included 1,570 tons of copper, 425 tons of matte and 110 tons of ore.

The total arrivals at the same ports by steamers only during the whole of October included 3,322 tons of copper, 2,360 tons of matte and 2,775 tons of ore.

And His Stomach Is All Right

Thousands With Poor Teeth Have Good Digestion by Using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets After Meals
Whether or not we eat the most nutritious matter for individual judgment, Benjamin Franklin tried the experiment of living on a handful of raisins. But he discovered that the quantity wasn't what he ate nor the quality thereof, but one of digestion and assimilation. The normal person eats heartily, and with keen enjoyment. That is because his body does not anticipate stomach trouble. And if he does have an attack of your stomach or indigestion he knows that the use of Stuart's Tablets give quick relief.

A Gentleman of the "Old School" Who Keeps Up With the Times

Many people have poor teeth, weak gums, sore teeth and other bothersome troubles that prevent a vigorous mastication of food. And instead of eating soft, mushy food that pulls on the appetite they go in for these savory dishes, the very odor of which starts the saliva and makes the stomach fairly reel with anticipation.

This is but a natural condition. Anything else borders upon the indifference which fosters indigestion and chronic dyspepsia.

It may be safely said that it should not be a question of diet for "Old School" food, or teeth or even any of the reflexes which are supposed to have their influence in deranging the stomach. It is simply a matter of supplying the stomach and digestive organs with those known assistants such as pepsin, and hydrochloric acid, both of which have a direct and powerful action upon the contents of the stomach.

One grain of a single ingredient in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food. This saves your stomach and gives it the rest it needs. All muscles require occasional rest if they are ever over-taxed. The stomach is no exception to this rule.

Try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you will wonder how you ever got along without them. They are sold at 50 cents by all druggists everywhere.

ENGLISH MAY BUILD NEW RY. IN CANADA

MONTREAL, Canada, Nov. 5.—As the result of the entrance into Canada of a new and powerful group of English capitalists and continental bankers, Canada is sure of another inter-oceanic railway. It was announced in local financial circles today.

The proposed railway, a line which completed, will extend from the Pacific ocean to Hudson bay, and will be known as the Alberta, Peace River & Eastern railway.

Nearly Smothered

Chandler, N. C.—Mrs. Augusta Lomax, of this place, writes: "I had something spells every day, so had that I expected death at any time. I could not sit up in bed. I suffered from womanly troubles. My nerves were unstrung. I had almost given up all hope of ever being better. I tried Cardui, and it did me more good than anything I had ever taken. I am better now than I ever expected to be."

Thousands of ladies have written similar letters, telling of the merits of Cardui. It relieved their headache, backache and misery, just as it will relieve yours, if you will let it. Try. Advertisement.

THE MERO RECITAL

By ALBERT C. PEARSON.

If Voltaire Mero is not the best playing pianist must have a bewitching personality. With due regard to the great pianists who have favored us in the past 15 years, I assert that none of them, with the possible exception of the Bachmann, has given a Colorado Springs audience more pleasure. Her playing has an amazing variety. It is capricious, tender, of a cultured delicacy, organized in its sentiment, after fortissimos are of the tender kind; her pianissimos, delicate, she has staccato passages of exquisite clarity, sonorous modulations, singing as a noble voice would sing, glazing contrasts of dynamics, surprising changes of tempo, and a tough vibrant with poetry, great is temperament when raised to such intelligence.

Madame Mero's program was well fitted to exhibit such versatility of pianistic gifts. It opened with a Bach concerto. Then followed three capricious of exquisite daintiness, a serene trio of Bachmannoff, which had an instantaneous success, and a Chopin group played with that restrained fabric and modest sensibility to this Chopin inspiration.

A first group brought to a conclusion a program too short for most of us. The large audience went on quite conscious that they had listened to a genius of a rare order. On reading this over, I see that what I've written sounds, perhaps, intemperately enthusiastic, but I can't help it. I mean it all, and it must stand.

Defies Her Parents for Romantic Love

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Once more the lovely Lady Beryl Le-Poer-Trench is disturbing the minds and defying the commands of her parents, the Earl and Countess of Claremont.

Lady Beryl who is only 18, is the daughter of the late Belle Hilton, the beautiful and famous music hall singer, who once more has defied her proud parent, this time by engaging herself to an impetuous doctor's son.

of the late Belle Hilton, the beautiful and famous music hall singer, who once more has defied her proud parent, this time by engaging herself to an impetuous doctor's son.

Now she has engaged herself to marry an impetuous but good looking young man, a son of the late Dr. Hope, of Curzon street.

Young Hope, who is in the reserve of the Irish Guards, lives with his widowed mother. The engagement has not been announced, and Lord and Lady Claremont are doing their best to influence Lady Beryl to break it off, but the girl has a very strong will and clings desperately to her romance. Failing all attempts, to coerce her, Lord Claremont will try to obtain a lucrative position in business for young Hope in the city.

WEALTHY ITALIAN WOMAN IS PATRON OF FUTURISM

By GEORGE DUFRESNE.
PARIS, Nov. 5.—There is method in the madness of the "Futurists" at the autumn salon. The art is an industry—not a mere waste of time. Its productions are bought principally by the Belgians and the Russians, who show ingenuity in disposing of their wares at high prices. Futurism has its patron in a wealthy Italian lady, who lives now in Florence.

The autumn salon has astonished the folk who thought Cubism had passed. On the contrary, it is more

Growing Children Need Good Bowels

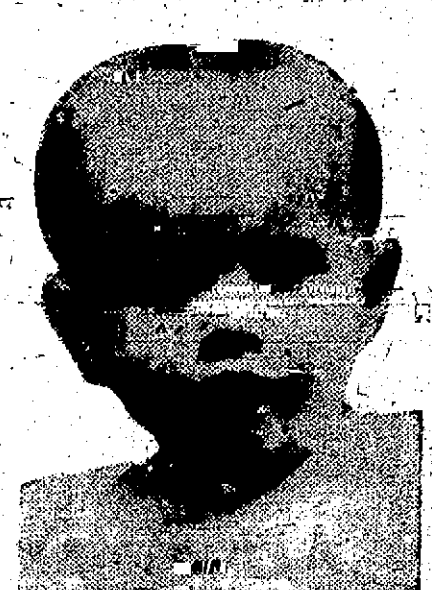

Give a Mild Laxative Occasionally to Insure Regular Bowel Action

As a child grows older it requires more and more attention to the bowels are of the utmost importance to health, great attention should be paid to them.

Diet is of great importance, and the mother should watch the effect of certain foods. A food will constipate one, and now another, and so on. A healthy food like bananas, but business to thousands, and a whole some fruit like bananas, containing many. It is also to be considered that the child is growing, and great changes are taking place in the young man or young woman. The system has not yet settled itself to its later habits.

A very valuable remedy at this stage, and one which every growing boy and girl should be given often or occasionally, according to the individual circumstances, is the old-fashioned Syrup Pepsin. This is a laxative and tonic combined, so mild that it is given to little babies, and yet equally effective in the most robust constitution. At the first sign of a tendency to constipation give a small dose of Syrup Pepsin at night on retiring, and prompt action will follow in the morning. It not only acts on the stomach and bowels, but its tonic properties build up and strengthen the system generally, which is an opinion shared by the parents of Vesta Beatrice Harman, 118 S. 1st Ave., Burlington, Ia., and Mr. R. H. Miller, Nebraska City, Neb., and thousands of others.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it, be fore buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal card will do—to W. H. Caldwell, 415 Washington St., North Chicago, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. No money, no money guaranteed, or money will be refunded. Adv.

GENIUS AND HAIR COLOR

From the Popular Science Monthly.
Extremely few geniuses, from the beginning of the world, have had hair that was red or decidedly light. Thackeray, indeed, had very light hair—almost white. Cleopatra was red-headed, and Keats' hair was "gold brown." Andrew Jackson's hair was "reddish sandy," and James Russell Lowell's was auburn. Swinburne's was a red in his youth. But all these were exceptions.

Brown hair is apparently the favorite with genius. Napoleon's was dark brown. Robert Browning, Washington Irving, Dante Rossetti, R. L. Stevenson, Tennyson and Mendelssohn had dark brown hair, almost black; while among great men who had very black hair were Daniel Webster, John G. Whittier, Matthew Arnold, S. T. Coleridge, Stephen A. Douglas, Sir

BALKAN CRISIS STIRS ENGLAND

GLADSTONE FORESAW PRESENT CONFLICT

Great Britain Fears Germany. Years Past Have Taught Nothing

By PHILLIP EVERETT.
LONDON, Nov. 5.—It is with a deep feeling of shame that the best part of the people of England look upon the war now raging in the Balkans. Recent events have brought forcibly home to the minds of all thinking Englishmen the fact that a great English statesman, Mr. Gladstone, years ago clearly pointed out to his countrymen the path to follow in regard to Turkey. Englishmen realize that their failure to support him and back him up has led to a series of events which will forever remain a blot upon the escutcheon of Great Britain's honor.

Had Mr. Gladstone had his way in the Berlin conference, Turkey would have been removed from Europe then and there and not only would the present war have been avoided, but thousands of lives taken by the Turks in cold-blooded butchery would have been saved. Gladstone would have saved the 30,000 Christian Armenians which the now despotic Abdul Hamid refused to be murdered and driven out of Constantinople 16 years ago, a crime which civilized Europe has never seen fit to punish.

Years Taught Nothing.
The years that have passed have taught Europe nothing. The powers again hold their threatening hands over the assassins at Belgrade, and looms at Constantinople, whose hands are red with Christian blood, have been cheering outside the British minister's house in Stamboul.

Once more the opportunity of a just peace is placed before the people of England, once more the chance of following Gladstone's advice, but even now we know what will happen. In diplomacy there is no feeling, sympathy does not count, and diplomats, representing countries all jealous of each other, assert that status quo must be maintained and no matter what happens in this way, the Turks will be permitted to remain on European soil.

England Afraid of Germany.
England is afraid of Germany, and because of this fact English statesmen refuse to listen to the spirits of thousands of murdered women and children crying for vengeance and forget that the same Turkey that now takes to Great Britain for protection and support for centuries has suffered every

In this way he instills in his army officers a fighting spirit that he believes will carry them to victory in the present fight against the terrible Turk.

HOW BURGLAR WALKED INTO DANGEROUS TRAP

LONDON, Nov. 5.—How a burglar walked into a trap that had been prepared for him was told at Birmingham Scotland when Alfred Chaudie, commission agent, was sentenced to seven years' penal servitude for feloniously entering the shop of Mrs. Henrietta Agnew, pawnbroker, of Colmore-row.

Last night the burglar opened a conversation with Mr. Lorie, the manager of Mrs. Agnew's business, and suggested that Lorie should lend him the keys of the premises so that he could make an impression of them. "I won't matter to your mistress," he added, "she is probably insured, and it will mean a thousand or two for each day." There was $3000 worth of stock in the strong room.

Lorie communicated with the police, who advised him to let the prisoner have a duplicate set of keys. He did so, and after an impression had been made the prisoner returned them, and it was arranged that he should break into the shop. The police watched him enter the premises and followed him. As soon as Detective Knowles entered the prisoner knocked him down with a jimmy, and a desperate struggle took place. The police found a complete set of burglar's tools, and keys giving access to every part of the premises.

FISHERMAN SOUND ASLEEP IN BOAT NEAR RAPIDS

BEAUFORT, Nov. 5.—Found fast asleep in a small sailing boat, a fisherman named Brown, has just been rescued when within 50 yards of almost certain death.
It is to the prompt action of James Nelson, a fisherman, that Brown owes his rescue. Nelson saw the sailing boat drifting helplessly towards a straggled part of the entrance to Strangford Lough, County Down, where the tide ran at a speed of 20 miles an hour. Seeing the heavy breakers big enough to swamp a large schooner, Nelson promptly went in pursuit in a motorboat and reached the sailing boat when it was within 50 yards of the breakers. Brown was found fast asleep in his boat and was safely towed to Portadown.

MARCONI PLANS TO ENCIRCLE THE GLOBE

Two Gigantic Schemes Now Being Perfected for the Wireless System

LONDON, Nov. 5.—A scheme of "wireless" around the world—this is the work that the Marconi company is carrying out with all dispatch, and within a year it will be a commercial possibility to send a wireless message from London to Australia and receive an answer within an hour.
A newspaper representative was shown at the Marconi headquarters in London, a Marconi map of the world. Red lines which radiated in every direction showed how the most remote parts of the globe are to be linked up by wireless.

Amid the myriad dots which marked small and private stations, the routes were marked out by two great schemes which are to make "wireless" as usual a means of communication all over the world as the present telegraph wires and cables.

Have Two Schemes.
The one is an imperial scheme, and the other is an American transoceanic scheme. It is the imperial scheme which will link up England with Australia.

Mr. Turnbull of the Marconi company pointed out the aerial route which Marconigrams will take on their long journey to Australia.
"When the scheme is completed," he said, "messages handed in London will be sent first to Alexandria, and from there to Bombay they will go on to Bangalore in southern India, thence to Singapore, and from Singapore to Port Darwin, in the north of Australia. The work of erecting all these stations is being pushed on as rapidly as possible.

Erecting American Station.
Further long distance services, which will be working soon are from Christchurch to New York, and from New York to Havana and Buenos Ayres.

For the American scheme, which will serve to link up the other half of the world, a powerful wireless station is being erected at Belliar, near New York city. Messages from there will be sent to a station in the Panama canal zone, thence to Hawaii, from Hawaii to Manila, joining up with the imperial service at Singapore.

South Africa is to have a station at Pretoria powerful enough to talk direct to Buenos Ayres and New Zealand, will have its wireless station at Wellington.

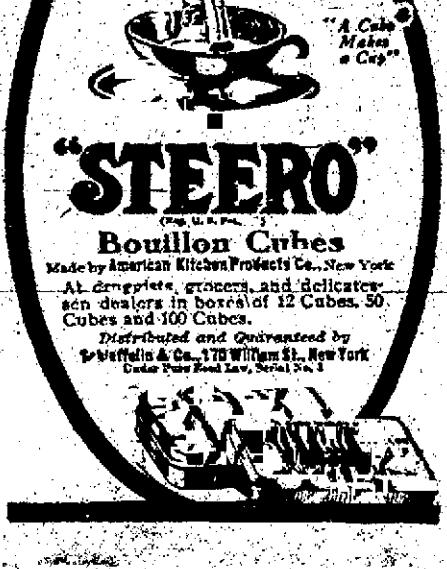

FAMILY OF FIVE DEAD FROM ASPHYXIATION

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 5.—A family of five was found dead from asphyxiation in their home here at noon today. The dead are: George W. Hansen, 24 years old, an automobile tester; his wife, 22 years old, and their three children. The bodies were all in their night clothes, the man in a kneeling attitude beside the bed. The youngest child was clasped in the mother's arms. The fumes came from two stoves.

HOW TO EXPLAIN DREAMS

Rev. Samuel McComb in the Century.
The dream as it unfolds itself before the sleeper's consciousness is an allegorical or symbolical expression of the ideas which belong to his thought. Any should dreams take on an allegorical or symbolical character, a mere, a literal transference of events and experiences from a waking state to a sleeping state? The answer is because the normal waking consciousness which acts as a kind of check upon painful or disagreeable thoughts and feelings, relaxes its activities during sleep, and allows these thoughts and feelings to pass into consciousness. Only, however, when their motives have been disguised under a hidden mass of symbolism. If it were not so, it dreams literally reflected the conflicts and yearnings of the everyday world, they would set up such morbid excitement as would make the waking consciousness and so make an end of sleep. Hence the valuable reflection is forced upon us that dreams fulfill the important function of preserving sleep. They are thus seen to bear vitally upon our health and happiness.

Another interesting question which modern investigation has been able to answer is, out of what materials are dreams constructed? Nothing can enter into our dreams that has not entered into our past experiences. The thoughts of the mental state immediately preceding sleep are hard to recover afterward, but when they are recovered they are found to persist in our dreams. But we may go further than this. There is nothing incredible in the supposition that, written as it were, with invisible ink on our nervous systems are characters inherited from our most distant ancestors.

AEROPLANE COAST DEFENSE PLANNED

Stations Being Designed to Afford Protection to England

By PHILLIP EVERETT.
LONDON, Nov. 5.—A new naval aeroplane station on the fifth of fourth, one of the chain of such stations which are to be established along the east coast as a counterblast to German aerial activity at Heligoland and Wilhelmshaven, has just started operations. This station is at Carlisle, and its intended use as an outpost of the new naval base at Rosyth. The machines there are 100-horsepower Short tractor hydro-biplane, a 70-horsepower Short tractor hydro-biplane, and a 50-horsepower Farman propeller driven hydro-biplane.
Great activity may be expected in the naval wing of the flying corps in the near future, as many machines are being brought by the admiralty, and in spite of the general shortage of officers in the navy, a number of officers from among the many who have already learned to fly at their own expense, will shortly be appointed to the flying corps. There are already aeroplanes, sheds at Harwich, and a new station is to be established at Cleethorpe to guard the Humber. The next move will be to establish stations for the Tyne and Tees, and probably one for the south Essex coast.

Establish Many Posts.
Then there will have to be others at the mouth of the Tyne and Ramsey Pier in Scotland, and on the Clyde and Solway. At Barrow-in-Furness, the Mersey, Milford Haven, the Bristol Channel, Plymouth, Portland, Portsmouth, and probably about New Haven, there will have to be stations. Ireland will have posts on Lough Bay, Belfast, Lough, Lough Foyle, Galway Bay, Greenock, Queenstown Harbour and Waterford Bay. So one can easily foresee a couple of dozen stations without reckoning in headquarters at Eastchurch.

Allowing only a dozen machines to each station, that gives a fleet of 300 machines for the beginning of a coast defense scheme without allowing anything for sea-going aeroplanes to operate with our fleet at sea, or for defense machines at our naval bases abroad.

SHARP CONFLICT IN BALKANS EXPECTED

Powers Aligning Selves on One or Other Sides of Controversy

SOFIA, Nov. 6.—The Turks have suffered another severe defeat between Serai and Tchatalja. The losses on both sides far exceeded those at the battle of Lule Burgas. The fighting in this battle lasted two days, and the Turks offered desperate resistance.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Great powers of Europe are aligning themselves on either side of a very sharp line regarding the future of the Balkan states. Public opinion in England, France and Russia is that the allies should have the territory which they have conquered and Russia, particularly, has warned Turkey that conditions could only become worse should further disaster occur at Tchatalja. On the other side are Austria-Hungary, Germany and Italy. Austria-Hungary, which after all is the most directly interested, being the nearest neighbor to the Balkan states, will not, it is believed, sit quietly by and see the Balkan league established itself across her path to the Aegean sea in which direction her trade is expanding while at the same time the Serbians spread to the Adriatic sea. The Austrian government points out that the Albanians are as much a nation as any of the allies, and that Albania should be reserved for the Albanians.

Dissension Appears.
The first sign of dissension among the Balkan allies themselves comes from a dispatch from Belgrade, in which it is said the Serbians are beginning to declare that the autonomous Albania, which was agreed upon before the war started has now faded away. In the dispatch the Mussulman Albanians who fought against the Serbians troops are blamed for the change in the Serbian attitude.

Instead of the 25-mile stretch along the Adriatic coast hitherto claimed by Serbia, the same dispatch says that Serbia now wants 50 miles and that in addition, Montenegro is to get more than her allotment of the district of Novi Pazar.

The correspondent adds significantly: "The emperor of Russia will be chosen as arbitrator between Serbia and Bulgaria in regard to these questions which were not foreseen in the original agreement between the allies."

Bulgarians May Advance.
In the meantime the Bulgarian troops in the vicinity of Tchatalja are preparing to resume their advance on Tchatalja. After four nights and four days of continuous fighting, according to Lule Burgas, the Bulgarian soldiers were given two days' rest. This time probably the troops are again on the move. The Bulgarian army near Tchatalja is being reinforced with troops taken from the investing forces around Adrianople, whose places in turn have been taken by Serbians.
A second Bulgarian army commanded by General Kuticheff is marching along the coast of the Sea of Marmora to effect a junction with the Bulgarian army commanded by General Dimitrieff at Tchatalja.
To get on the move quickly the Bulgarian troops must have worked hard as they have thousands of wounded Turks and Bulgarians to care for and have to burn or bury a large number of killed.

Servians May Assist.
It is officially stated in a dispatch from Belgrade that the Servians have annihilated the Turkish army in Macedonia have been ordered to assist

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION OF MOTORISTS

F. M. Bogan in September Lippincott's.
In Germany legislation provides for the physical examination of persons applying for motor licenses. This examination is much more rigid than might be expected. Of course, nearly normal vision and hearing are required. Those having squinting or astigmatic eyes, the color blind, and the blind are rejected.
In the case of hearing, the whispered voice must be heard at nine feet. Especial attention is paid to the detection of those suffering from neurasthenia, giddiness or insanity—these of course being barred.
The arm and the leg must be used in operating a machine must be normal, and in case the applicant has lost one or more fingers, or has deformities of the hand, he is given an opportunity to demonstrate his fitness or unfitness for driving a car.
The provisions of this examination are so sane that the general adoption of regulations along the same lines would, in my opinion, greatly reduce the number of automobile accidents in this country.

PASSENGER USES AEROPLANE TO OVERTAKE LINER

From Popular Mechanics Magazine.
Aeroplanes have not yet been listed as part of the dock equipment of the big steamship companies to be used to catch departing vessels by belated passengers—but there may come a time when such a means of transportation will be provided. At any rate the idea is not a wild imaginary scheme, as it has been actually tried. A belated passenger in New York recently chased and overtook a steamer sailing for Europe and was put aboard the aeroplane being the vehicle with which he accomplished his purpose.

A new German aeroplane propeller is built up of leather upon a nickel steel frame, the claim being that it is indestructible.
